crème de la crème

Take a look at what impressed the judges at this year's Gift of the Year Awards

The Giftware Association's prestigious Gift of the Year 2015 competition attracted the highest number of entries in recent memory and also sparked lively debate among this year's judges.

The ceremony, which took place at the NEC at the end of the opening day of Spring Fair (1st February), was attended by finalists, judges, Giftware Association Retail members and sponsors. Internationally renowned product designer and Gift of the Year ambassador Sebastian Conran presented the awards to the winners of all 20 categories.
